

Explanatory Note for Human Research Subject

Name of Research Project
Researcher	Category	Name	Organization	Title	Contact Information
	Lead Researcher		SUNY Korea

※ You have been asked to participate in this research with a decision that you are suited as a subject for research that we conduct. Before making a decision to participate in this research, we ask that you carefully read the details in the following explanatory note. Please ask any questions you have any time. This research will be conducted with voluntary participation, and it is important that you understand all the details relating to this research. If you have any question regarding this research or when you feel that there are risks or discomfort, please feel free to contact us any time.

1. Purpose of research
2. Subject participating in research
3. Research method
4. Period of participation in research
5. Matters that subject needs to follow
6. Side-effects or risk factors
7. Benefits obtained from participation in research
8. Disadvantage of not participating in research
9. Personal information and confidentiality
10. Compensation or treatment to be given to subject when there are damages relating to participation in research
11. Expected costs subject may bear for participating in research
12. Decision of participation in research is voluntary, and subject may give up participation any time during research
13. Privacy is guaranteed, but the information may be opened to concerned parties including researcher
14. When new information relating to research is obtained, the information will be notified to human research subject
15. Cases where participation in research is limited and corresponding reason
16. Contact Information of Review Board

This research has been approved by Institutional Review Board of SUNY Korea, and if you have questions on the right as a participant of the research, you can contact administrative assistant of Institutional Review Board of SUNY Korea.